Job Title: Assistant Director of Student Ministry

Surfside Presbyterian (PCA) Church in Myrtle Beach, South Carolina, is beginning the search for a full time Assistant Director of Student Ministries. The Assistant Director will be responsible for assisting the director of student ministries in advancing the church's impact on students, parents, the church body and the surrounding community. The assistant director's primary objective will be to create a junior high program on Wednesday nights and focus on the discipleship of students in 6th-8th grade. He will also lead in planning events targeted towards this age group. He will also be involved in the holistic discipleship of students and their families into a growing and joyful relationship with Jesus Christ anchored in His grace with a passion for His kingdom and glory. He will also take on other roles in the general ministries and facilities of the church. We are a church of approximately 550, and our growth is strong in all aspects of the church, especially the student ministries areas. This is a very critical position in the ministry of Surfside Presbyterian Church as we desire greatly to love and teach our students in a Christ centered environment that is solid in Reformed teaching.

Experience in the field is desired with a balanced understanding of the Reformed tradition and its affect on student ministry. As expected, an outgoing and pleasant personality is required.
