

Position Opening: Associate Pastor

Friendship Presbyterian Church is an independent Presbyterian church located in Taipei, Taiwan. The church has two congregations: an English-speaking congregation and a Mandarin-speaking one. The English-speaking congregation is seeking a full-time associate pastor and will provide a salary/benefits package commensurate with the qualifications and experience of the candidate.

The English-speaking congregation is evangelical, reformed and missional. In the past two years, the church has grown significantly and now has around 200 in attendance. The congregation is international, with a high parentage of Taiwanese members along with young professionals and students from many other countries. Worship services and other ministries are conducted in English to meet the needs of English-speaking people in Taipei. The church is also exploring ways of becoming part of a larger church planting movement in Taiwan and beyond.

Responsibilities of the position will include:

- Assist the head pastor with worship leading and preaching
- Shepherd, disciple and teach the congregation through Bible classes, small groups and discipleship groups
- Assist in counseling, pastoral care, and follow-up of newcomers
- Actively evangelize and encourage an evangelism mind-set in the congregation.
- Provide leadership in youth ministry and assistance with children's ministry.
- Assist with church planning and administration.

Qualifications: The candidate must be ordained in a reformed church body or movement with a minimum of three years of ministry experience. Fluency in Mandarin Chinese and ministry experience in a cross-cultural setting are beneficial though not required. The candidate must be missional with a solid Biblical foundation and an understanding of how to adapt the communication of the message to a changing culture. The candidate should also have an interest and appreciation for Taiwanese culture and learning basic Mandarin to navigate in the culture. Send résumés to:
