

Colloquium

Tuesday, June 10th from 9:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. in Reunion Ballroom F

"What do the sacraments actually accomplish in their administration?" It seems like it is time for a denominational conversation about this question. To have that conversation the North Texas Presbytery is sponsoring a COLLOQUIUM at this years General Assembly.

There will four main speakers: Will Barker, Ligon Duncan, Jeffrey Meyers and Rob Rayburn. Each one will have a main presentation and an opportunity to respond to the presentations of the other three. There will also be an opportunity for members of the audience to address questions to these brothers. Come and join the conversation!
