

Headmaster for Classical Christian School in New England

Christ Community Presbyterian Church (PCA), West Hartford, CT is seeking to start a Classical Christian School in the Fall of 2007. We are currently pursuing a Headmaster, the requirements of which include: Prior teaching and development experience within a Classical Christian School, an unswerving commitment to the Scriptures and the Reformed faith, and a passion for growing future Christian leaders. The candidate must be diligent, Spirit-driven, personable, and adept at public relations (note: Applicants who are currently Reformed Pastors and Teaching elders welcome, as the prospect for a future church plant also exists).

If you have a vision for covenantal education and are committed to translating this vision into reality for the sake of covenant families throughout the country, in an entire movement of future schools, we'd like to hear from you either via e-mail at (classical@christepc.org), or via phone at 860-836-2899.
