

Hernando Presbyterian Church (ARP)

Hernando, Mississippi (Suburban Memphis)

Hernando Presbyterian Church is a member of the Mississippi Valley Presbytery of the ARP Church located in suburban Memphis. Our current Pastor is in the process of making the transition to a new charge in Australia, and so we are looking for a man with strong preaching and teaching gifts who can effectively minister to members and attendees of all ages. We are flexible with regard to the expected duties, and we would primarily consider part-time service or Sunday pulpit supply with some teaching duties. Compensation is also negotiable, depending on qualifications, experience, and duties undertaken. Inquiries from students are welcome. Our church is conservative, reformed in doctrine, Calvinistic in its Soteriology, and fairly traditional in worship. We are a small congregation, but would like to work toward numerical as well as spiritual growth. We have an active Sunday School with Sunday and Wednesday evening prayer and study times. We are fully committed to our faith in Jesus Christ, and to the extension of the Gospel message throughout our community. There is great potential here in Desoto County; the fields are indeed white and ready for harvest even though at present the laborers are all too few! We invite you to contact us if you are interested in participating in ministry with us. You may contact our Search Committee Chairman, Mr. Steve Rice at 662-429-7870, or by regular mail at Hernando Presbyterian Church, 2070 Mt. Pleasant Road, Hernando, MS 38632. You may also send your resume to SLrice1001@yahoo.com. Thanks, and God bless you in your endeavors for Christ!
