Job Description (information limited to the box size)

Purpose: To oversee, shepherd and direct the ministry for middle school students in a way that is consistent with the vision, values and theology of Lexington Presbyterian Church. Also to support and encourage volunteer and parental involvement.

General Responsibilities

Relationships

This position will be one that seeks to spiritually impact students and families through relationships. Relating to Junior High students and their parents so that they feel loved, cared for, challenged, fed and encouraged in Christ.

Teaching and Discipleship

This position will offer Biblical instruction (along with other staff and volunteer leaders) to students involved in the Junior High ministry through weekly Bible studies. This position will (with the Student Minister) manage and oversee the selection of materials for Junior High Sunday school, small groups and Wednesday night Blast. This position will evangelize and disciple students personally and oversee the discipleship ministry to Junior High Students.

Administration

This position will direct the program for the Junior High – involving weekly Sunday school, separate weekly meetings for fellowship and sharing and special events community building, outreach and fun. This position will take the primary responsibility for communications (bulletin announcements, mailings and emails, new student follow up) and activity details. This position will assist the Student Minister in identifying, training and equipping volunteer leaders.

Qualifications
