

Paid Middle School Internship (Female) - Central Presbyterian Church

Central Presbyterian Church (EPC) is looking for a female intern to work with middle school students approximately 15-20 hours per week. Since this position is paid by the church, attendance at Central Pres is required. We currently have a great Student Ministry team in place and are looking to add a person who is outgoing, intelligent, flexible, and passionate about creating gospel-centered community among middle school students. The duties of this internship will consist primarily of attendance at Sunday School, Wednesday night dinner and Youth Group, weekly student contact, as well as bi-weekly staff meetings. If interested, please send your resume to Melinda Dyk @ studentministry@centralpres.com.
