

Music and Arts Intern Announcement

Intown Community Church, a 25 year old PCA congregation located in Atlanta, Ga., is seeking a gifted man or woman to fill an Intern position in the Music and Arts department.

Job Mission statement

The mission of the Music and Arts Intern position is to help prepare and equip musicians who are being lead into full time music/worship ministry. Intown Community Church is committed to church planting and equipping new leaders with the necessary tools to successfully transition into full time positions.

Job Structure

This person, working under the oversight of the current Director of Music and Arts will assist in worship planning, worship leading, departmental administrative tasks and new Music and Arts initiatives.

Job Requirements

Candidates who would like to apply for this position must have the experience, education and recommendations to support the following job requirements:

- Spiritually mature
- Clear understanding of a theology of worship.
- Understand multiple musical worship styles
 - BA in music with experience
- Personal instrumental and vocal ability

Application Process

All inquiries and applications should be sent to jbigham@intown.org

Applications should include:

- Resume detailing education and experience
- A brief statement of faith
- A brief theology of worship
- Contact information for three references