

Covenant Presbyterian Church (PCA)

Wheat Ridge, Colorado

Covenant Presbyterian Church is nestled near the foothills in Denver's western suburb of Wheat Ridge, Colorado. The church has existed since the 1950's and has current members who have been attending for widely varying periods of time. As a Gospel-centric body of believers, we hold to the inerrancy of the Scriptures and enthusiastically embrace the Biblical truths of historical Reformed theology.

We are seeking a biblically-qualified pastor who:

- Recognizes the primacy of preaching and teaching among his pastoral duties.
- Is deeply committed to the Reformed truths contained in the Westminster Confession of Faith and the Bible and who will faithfully proclaim and apply these truths to the congregation.
- Will strive to develop the spiritual lives of the members of the congregation through teaching and preaching of the Word.
- Has a passion and love for God and His people that is evident from the pulpit as well as one-on-one interactions.
- Is willing to visit members homes along with other leaders of the church.
- Can lead by example and humbly works well with others and inspires them to greater devotion and service to God.
- Is skilled in encouraging and facilitating gracious communication and harmony within the church.

Our new pastor will work with our full time church secretary, part-time pastor to the elderly, elders, and other church leaders to consistently develop opportunities in the congregation for personal spiritual growth, evangelism, discipleship, leadership development, and Christian service.

We have a worship service at 11:00 a.m. and 6:00 p.m. on Sundays with Sunday School at 9:30 a.m. with classes for all ages. We have a mostly traditional (but not exclusively traditional) worship format. Throughout the week, we benefit from Community Group fellowship with each other and have a variety of ministries for various age groups. In missions, we are involved with supporting several missionaries and offer prayer support and other assistance to various ministries and missionaries. We aspire to be a body of believers that increasingly finds opportunities to reach out to the community in evangelism and service and desire our pastor to lead us in this work.

We prayerfully seek God's guidance in this search process and we are already praying for this pastor, his family, and the members of his current church.

We welcome your application. For additional information and the application process, please reference the attached PCA Church Profile Form
