Job Description (information limited to the box size)

- 1) Graduate of a PCA or Reformed Theological Seminary with a minimum of a Masters of Divinity. Ordained and able to rightly administer the Sacraments, conveying their Biblical and confessional meaning.
- 2) Diligent preaching of weekly sermons being faithful to the Word of God and its text, conveying it in a manner understandable to the congregation. Sermons should be well ordered and preached in confessional, God-centered theology by clearly preaching Christ Jesus and Him crucified.
- 3) Oversee the spiritual interest of church, patiently shepherding the interests of the flock congregation.
- 4) Watching diligently over the congregation that no corruption of morals or doctrine enters in and exercise government and discipline with the Session. Teaching through various forms of Christian education.
- 5) Encouraging fellowship of the saints in regular gatherings including men's and women's Bible studies and Wednesday night fellowship meals and preaching.
- 6) Serve as needed on church committees, including missions and evangelism. Act as church administrator. Assist in identifying and training present and future leaders of the church.
- 7) Maintain and develop local ministerial contacts as well as with Great Lakes Presbytery and the denomination.
