Search Committee Chairman David Hyslop

Job Description (information limited to the box size)

Our senior pastor is retiring in 2011. Trinity PCA has 125 members. It is a mostly senior congregation requiring extensive visitation and personal contact. We seek to expand our membership and become a more varied demographic. We want to continue a reformed message of clear biblical teaching and mentor the male members to be leaders in the church and home.

We require; PCA or related reformed school graduate

Minimum 3 years as a senior pastor or 3-5 years as assistant pastor and youth leader in a larger church.

Record of building membership

Prefer married with young children and wife available to assist.

Toby Chapman is a pulpit search committee member and deacon chairman. He is acting as contact for the committee chairman who is temporarily out of town on business. The phone number and e mail is his personal contact information. All inquiries will be confidential.
