

River Oaks Presbyterian Church

Corporate Worship Director

Ministry Description

DESCRIPTION:

Corporate worship on the Lord's Day is the pinnacle of every new week and is foundational to living all of life as an act of worship. The Corporate Worship Director (CWD) of River Oaks is responsible to lead and equip the congregation to fulfill our highest calling, "to glorify God and enjoy Him forever" in a way that is consistent with the vision, values, and theology of River Oaks Church. The CWD is responsible for overseeing the worship ministry which includes leading the congregation into the presence of our God, and recruiting, equipping, and caring for a worship team.

QUALIFICATIONS:

- Must be a mature and vibrant follower of Jesus Christ
- Personal Maturity and demonstrated interpersonal skills
- Teachable team member
- Must be musically gifted and able to lead vocally and instrumentally
- Strong communication, organization and leadership skills
- Experience in leading corporate worship

DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES:

1. Develop and oversee weekly worship planning process
2. Create and implement the weekly worship service with the Senior Pastor
3. Recruit, develop, and organize worship teams (vocalists & instrumentalists) and lead mid-week and Sunday morning rehearsals.
4. Oversee the technical ministry teams (audio/video)
5. Oversee the worship / audio / video budget
6. Report to CCLI as necessary
7. Organize and lead special music programs (e.g. Christmas Eve, Easter, Good Friday)
8. Seek to stimulate a creative worship environment