TERMINOLOGY & DEFINITIONS

 Applicant: One who submits his MDF to the Search Committee before they contact him.

Candidate: The individual whom the Committee selected out of all names received and processed to present to the congregation for a vote and a possible call.

CPF: Church Profile Form – a form used by Search Committees to determine the profile of a congregation. This form should be used in screening; in particular the Part IIICongregational Priorities should be compared with Part III Pastoral Activities of the MDF.

MDF: Ministerial Data Form – the standard form used by the PCA to provide basic information about a Teaching Elder to churches seeking to fill a vacant pulpit or other position requiring an ordained man.

Potential Candidate: Someone who has passed through the screening process to a predetermined level. This level would normally be reached after a telephone interview, when the Committee decides to send a group to visit to the man’s church or invite him to a neutral pulpit to observe a worship service and interview him and his family in person. This group should be about two or three in number, and not more than five.

Prospect: A name obtained by the Committee that has not yet been eliminated in the screening process.
SAMPLE STATUS LETTER
“NOT A MATCH”

Dear Rev. Prospect:

Thank you for allowing the Pulpit Nominating Committee of Vacant Presbyterian Church to consider you for the position of Senior Pastor.

After careful and prayerful consideration of your qualifications and Pastoral Activities profile, we have concluded that there is not the match we desire to find. (Add a reason or two which will point to specific shortcomings which will not necessarily be negative, such as: “We are looking for someone older with more experience and interest in ministering to the elderly and shut-ins,” or “We are looking for a man with a closer match on Part III, the Pastoral Activities profile,” or “We are looking for someone with considerably more experience than two years in the pastorate to lead our congregation of 750 members.”)

We trust and pray that God will lead you, as clearly as we feel He is leading us, to that place of service where He wants you at this time.

In His service,

John Henry, Chairman
Pulpit Nominating Committee

7:00 p.m.  Reception for Rev. and Mrs. _______________ (if the congregation has approved his call). The entire congregation is invited.

Remember that, while proclamation of the Word is the most important of the gifts we are looking for in a senior pastor, there are several other abilities and gifts that are important. The Pulpit Nominating Committee has considered these in our decision to recommend Rev. _______________ to you.

Now we invite you to prayerfully make your own evaluation as the schedule allows on Friday, Saturday and Sunday morning. We suggest you consider such areas as: spiritual development of members, worship leadership, evangelism, encouraging the ministry of the laity, administrative leadership, outreach and mercy ministry, discipling and teaching.

In His Service,

Chairman,
Pulpit Nominating Committee
