English Ministry Description

English Ministry (Multi-ethnic English speaking Ministry) of Ark Mission Church began in 1995 with gradual congregational membership of over 50. We had changed its name to RLF (River Life Fellowship) and established the mission statement as to save souls and to make disciples of Jesus Christ to participate in mission work. RLF Ministry has current membership of around 20. We are a multi-ethnic community ministry serving God through learning, constantly striving to strengthen our faith, caring for those in need, and trying our utmost to live the Christian life according to Christ's Will.

Church Profile

Ark Mission Church was founded in 1989 by a Korean speaking congregation.
