

Assistant Pastor

We are looking for a reformed assistant pastor with cross-cultural experience (a plus) in our English-speaking ministry. The assistant pastor will lead the existing co-workers and will be in charge of teaching, caring and evangelizing to the English congregation. The English congregation's members are a diverse group ranging from families, young working adults, college students, and youth. There is also a small group of husbands from cross-cultural marriages. The target starting date is ASAP.

Chinese Christian Church of Northern Virginia is a member of the Potomac Presbytery of the PCA denomination. The church is located in Falls Church, Virginia. Our average attendance is over 350 people in four congregations – Mandarin speaking, Cantonese speaking and English speaking in Falls Church and Mandarin speaking in Springfield, Virginia. The English congregation, with an average of 50 people, has a separate worship and Sunday School on Sunday morning.

Specific qualifications that we seek are:

1. Graduated from a reformed or evangelical seminary and must hold a MDiv degree
2. Must adhere to PCA policy and governance and be willing to work toward ordination in the PCA
3. Has experiences and burdens on shepherding on English speaking families, adults, college student and youth
4. Willing to work with Chinese culture and Chinese brothers/sisters
