

President

Birmingham Theological Seminary

Briarwood Presbyterian Church in Birmingham, AL is prayerfully searching for a new President of Birmingham Theological Seminary (BTS) with a heart for the mission of BTS to provide sound Biblical and practical theological training to equip leaders for Christ's Church. This mission includes a focus on those who would otherwise lack access to seminary education. The ideal candidate would be a relational leader who is a champion of theological education. He would be gifted and experienced in vision casting and would be a proven fundraiser and an effective recruiter. Interested candidates should send resume' to Amy Lattner (alattner@briarwood.org).
