

Director of Worship

Job Opening
Director of Worship. Fishers, Indiana (IN) 46037

Crossroads Community Church, a PCA church located in the growing community of Fishers Indiana is seeking a part-time Director of Worship for their congregation. Crossroads' services feature a breadth of musical styles from traditional to contemporary. This ancient-future approach provides a well-balanced worship service intended to edify the believer and evangelize the unbeliever.

The primary role of our Director of Worship will be to lead the congregation into worship both verbally and musically. Along with preparing the Worship Team on Sundays and special events, this candidate will also be responsible for the organization of the Worship ministry by overseeing the audio/visual ministry for our services to assist in leading the people of God corporately in worship. You will have to recruit and effectively lead the worship team and be able to effectively partner with pastoral staff and volunteers to lead worship.

The right candidate will have a personal, active, discerning and maturing faith in Jesus Christ. They will have a sound understanding of the theology of Biblical, Reformed worship. You will have a love for the local church and a desire to partner with pastoral staff and volunteers to lead worship. Finally, this candidate will be a skilled musician, preferably trained.

This position is part time. For this position, prior worship ministry experience is preferred. Salary is commensurate with experience and education.

The vision of Crossroads Community Church is to be a Biblically-based, Christ-centered, Grace-oriented church that is growing spiritually in order to serve the Fishers, Noblesville, Geist and northeast Indianapolis communities. Our goal is to be a place where people can COME and receive the gospel of Jesus Christ, GROW in the knowledge of His grace, and GO make a difference for His kingdom. As we live out the gospel, we desire to support His kingdom through strategic church planting here in Indianapolis, the United States, and around the world.
