Job Description

Redemption Presbyterian Church invites applications for the position of assistant pastor, a position dedicated to the proclamation of the gospel, the offering of biblical instruction, and the administration of the sacrament. We seek an articulate, skilled, and hospitable preacher and teacher of Holy Scripture, as well as a pastor attentive to the spiritual formation of church members and attenders. This pastorate would oversee the spiritual wellbeing and encourage the community engagement of a Chicago south suburban congregation of roughly 60 members. For the present, Redemption is linked to another older church in Chicago's west suburbs, Trinity Presbyterian Church, on whose session our local elder commission sits. Although the congregation excels in mutual care and in offering welcome to guests, we also wish to increase our witness to, and engagement with, other neighbors who do not yet know the gospel.
