

ASSISTANT PASTOR OF COMMUNITY GROUPS

A search for an Assistant Pastor for Stony Point Church will begin in February, with the intent of hiring the new pastor in the summer of 2018. Stony Point PCA is a congregation of about 450 in an urban/suburban setting in the Richmond, VA area.

Qualifications:

At least five years' experience and demonstrated skills in setting vision for, organizing, and leading a community group ministry. The ideal candidate will have strong organizational skills and the ability to connect church members with one another. He will be a mature and growing disciple of Jesus and able to lead others into discipleship. The candidate should be ordained as a teaching elder in the PCA. He will work in a pastoral and staff team environment.

Areas of Responsibility:

1. Assume overall responsibility for community groups.
2. Provide organization and teaching support in small group leader training and development.
3. Provide supporting role in preaching and leading worship.

Please submit cover letter and resume by March 01, 2018 to Stony Point Reformed Presbyterian Church, Attention: AP Search Team, 2330 Buford Road, Richmond, VA 23235.