

Music Director Job Description

Position Summary: The Music Director is to oversee the development and management of the music ministry at The Kirk of Greensboro. He is to lead the church in the musical portion of gathered worship and develop the participants in the music ministry.

Requirements:

- A personal, growing relationship in Jesus Christ
- Knowledge of and commitment to the Bible and to the Reformed system of doctrine laid out in the Westminster Confession of Faith and its Catechisms
- Strong musicianship, preferably on the acoustic guitar and/or piano
- Gifted vocal with a range that suits congregational singing
- Experience in leading music in a church or para-church ministry
- Willingness to become a member of The Kirk and participate in our church community
- Agreement with The Kirk's philosophy of worship

Job Responsibilities and Duties

- Work in conjunction with the pastor to select music for Sunday morning worship services.
- Develop a breadth of songs for congregational worship.
- Recruit, screen, and encourage gifted people to participate either instrumentally or vocally in the music ministry.
- Organize and lead a weekly rehearsal.
- Oversee the sound quality, and sound board volunteers.
- Lead the music team and congregation on Sunday mornings.
- Assist with organizing and leading any special services (Good Friday and Christmas Eve).
- Purchase and upkeep music ministry and sound equipment in accordance with worship budget.
- Ensure the appropriate dress and appearance of music ministry volunteers.

Compensation:

- $200-$300 per Sunday, depending upon experience, not including ministry expenses.

The Music Director is supervised by the Pastor and will be evaluated annually.

To apply, submit resume to Rev. Darin Stone at darin@kirkgso.com or contact him at 336.482.6989.