

HOLY TRINITY
PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Holy Trinity Presbyterian Church in Tampa, Florida is seeking the following position:

Pastoral Intern

The purpose of this internship is to provide prospective candidates for the ministry exposure to a full range of pastoral, practical, and theological experiences in order to help them fulfill the internship requirements for ordination. This will include focused involvement in several areas of ministry as well as general exposure to the work of the Session and diaconate, leading worship, preaching, small groups, Christian Education, counseling, etc.

The internship is a full-time, two-year commitment and is paid accordingly. Interested applicants should complete the Pastoral Candidate Form (<https://form.jotform.com/82817113665156>) and submit it along with a resume and photo to Kristin Doyle, Executive Assistant to the Pastors, pastorassistant@holymtrinitypca.org. If you have completed a Ministerial Data Form please also include a copy of that.

Our History and Context

Holy Trinity was planted nearly 20 years ago by individuals in the area who wanted to establish a Bible believing church in the South Tampa community. The church is located right on the edge of downtown Tampa, across the street from Tampa Bay. With the University of Tampa just four blocks away and MacDill Air Force Base a couple of miles away, we have the unique opportunity and responsibility to serve in an area that is constantly drawing new people. For this reason, our desires as a church not only include the ongoing Christian nurture and discipleship of believers but also the engagement of unbelievers right here in our neighborhood.

Our Mission

Holy Trinity exists to proclaim the gospel and make disciples to the glory of the triune God. We are seeking, by God's grace, to become a church that reflects the character of the early church described by Luke in Acts 2:42-47.
