

REDEEMER PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH • WINSTON-SALEM, NC

POSITIONS AVAILABLE IN FORMATION, WORSHIP, OUTREACH, MUSIC

- Are you tired of not seeing Sundays integrated with the rest of your week?
- Do you want to help a community grow in the habits of prayer, worship, and service?
- Do you think outreach vs. discipleship is a false dichotomy?
- Do phrases like the following warm your belly?

Cultivating Artists • Eclectic Worship • Love of Neighbor • Human Flourishing • Navigating Difference • Servanthood • Habits of Grace • Liturgical Coherence • Faithful Presence • Prophetic Engagement

If you answered yes to these questions, then we'd love to hear from you. Redeemer is filling several positions and wants to be creative about hiring the right mix of people.*

If you're still interested in the possibility of laboring with us for the glory of God and the beauty of His Church, we will require a few things:

- A job description in your sweet spot that would make you get up in the mornings and labor sacrificially for the Kingdom
- A letter of introduction that tells us about yourself, explains the ministry skills and experience that you might bring to Redeemer's staff team, and any interests you would like to share
- Resume or CV
- At least two of the following:
 - A 1-3 page Philosophy of Worship and Liturgy
 - A 1-3 page Philosophy of Christian Formation
 - A 1-3 page Philosophy of Service and Evangelism
- Audio or Video of your recent music, worship leadership, sermons, or teaching
- Examples of Liturgies | Orders of Worship you have prepared or overseen
- A list of questions you might have for a phone interview

Please submit applications and inquiries to: klinde@redeemerws.org

We are continuing to build a staff team that that allows for flexible work in either part-time or full-time positions. We pay well. Benefits are strong. But only consider applying if you are willing to labor for the sake of others: out of your weakness and in the strength of your abiding in Him.*
