

Pastor/Director of Worship Job Posting (Spring 2019)

Description of Organization

University Presbyterian Church (UPC) exists for the glory of God and the good of Orlando. We are a healthy, growing, PCA church near the University of Central Florida that is passionate about making, maturing, and multiplying disciples of Jesus Christ. We have a reputation for solid expository preaching, making an impact in our city, and faithfulness to the Great Commission.

Specific Job Title: Director of Worship

Job Description:

We're looking for a new Director of Worship. This person will primarily be responsible for our Sunday morning worship services. We enjoy blending historic Protestant liturgical worship elements with modern hymns and songs. We're looking for someone with energy, authenticity, and a passion for Christ-centered, spiritually formative worship. We're hoping to find someone who can enhance the fullness and beauty of our worship services by integrating into our services more musicians and instruments.

This person will also be responsible for helping our congregation see worship as a way of life. We're looking for someone who will enjoy providing resources for individuals and married couples seeking to develop healthy personal and family devotional habits.

We have a great staff that is serious about making disciples, but also has a lot of fun together. Therefore, we're looking for a true team player who is generally humble, hardworking, and humorous.

Position Qualifications:

Candidates should have experience, musical training, and sound equipment expertise. They should also embrace Reformed theology and the Presbyterian view of baptism. Theological education is a plus, but not required.

Interested persons should send the following:

1. Resume
2. Video or audio example of skills
3. Personality profile information (Meyers-Briggs, DiSC, etc)

Application Deadline: 3/31/19

Full Time or Part Time: Full Time

Benefits: UPC offers competitive salary and benefits.
