

National Missions Pastor
Briarwood Presbyterian Church
Birmingham, AL

Briarwood Presbyterian Church, PCA, is seeking a National Missions Pastor. The National Missions Pastor will be an experienced pastoral leader and champion for the revitalization of churches. He will demonstrate a commitment and a passion to train, coach, and equip others to revitalize churches. He will provide direct leadership and oversight for our National Missions Team, Church Revitalization Team, and Church Planting Team. He and his team will implement Briarwood's National Missions Conference as well as four Embers to a Flame Conferences annually. He will either be ordained or ordainable in the PCA, be visibly committed to the local church and embrace working on the staff team at Briarwood. He will serve on the Missions Team and report to our Global Missions Pastor. An interested candidate should inquire with resume to Heather McDougall at hmcDougall@briarwood.org or for more information call her at 205-776-5279.
