

1 OVERTURE 20 from Nashville Presbytery (to AC, OC)
2 “Establish Study Committee on Domestic Abuse,” (Version 4)
3

4 Whereas, the sins of domestic abuse and sexual assault are expressly forbidden (2 Timothy
5 3:2-5; Jude 7; Exodus 21:15; Deuteronomy 22:25-27; also WLC 135 and 139); and 6

7 Whereas, these sins are especially heinous because they are “against the express letter of the 8 law,” “break many commandments,” “admit of no reparation,” and often involve
9 various other aggravations (WLC 151); and 10

11 Whereas, these sins are grievously prevalent in our society;¹ and 12

13 Whereas, these sins often produce in the victims a complex response of denial along with 14 immense fear and shame that persist with varying severity throughout life (e.g., 15 2 Samuel 13:1-22); and

17 Whereas, it is the responsibility of the elders of the church to exercise their authority,
18 severally and jointly, to shepherd those who are under their care by guarding against 19 such sinful behavior as much as possible, by wisely caring for those victimized by 20 the sins of others, and by appropriately disciplining those guilty of such sins toward a 21 full repentance; and
22

23 Whereas, these sins have been a concerning subject of attention not only in other
24 denominations but even in the proceedings of the 46th General Assembly; and 25

26 Whereas, the 42nd General Assembly previously exhorted the PCA and its courts to 27 respond boldly against one form of these sins, namely the sexual abuse of children;
28 and 29

30 Whereas, no standardized resources for pastoral care on these sins and their complex
31 consequences exist for officers, church courts, and agencies in the PCA; and 32

33 Whereas, no clear guidelines for policy or practice with regard to these sins exist for the 34 officers, church courts, and agencies in the PCA that would protect individuals and 35 congregations; and
36

37 Whereas, the Rules of Discipline make no consideration for the unique heinousness of these
38 sins and their practical effect on victims;

¹ For example, the National Domestic Violence Hotline reports: “More than 1 in 3 women (35.6%) and more than 1 in 4 men (28.5%) in the United States have experienced rape, physical violence and/or stalking by an intimate partner in their lifetime” (available at <http://www.thehotline.org/resources/statistics/>, accessed 6/15/18). For further sobering statistics on sexual violence see the National Center for Injury Prevention and Controls report entitled Sexual Violence Surveillance: Uniform Definitions and Recommended Data Elements (Atlanta: Center for Disease Control, 2014; available online at http://www.cdc.gov/violenceprevention/pdf/sv_surveillance_definitions1-2009-a.pdf).

1 Therefore, be it resolved that Nashville Presbytery hereby overtures the 47th General
2 Assembly of the PCA to form a committee to study:

- 3
4 (1) the nature of domestic abuse and sexual assault;
5 (2) the pastoral resources available for the care of survivors of these sins;
6 (3) the best practices and policy guidelines for elders, church courts, and agencies
7 for protecting against these sins and for responding to them;
8 (4) the possibility of changes to the Rules of Discipline that would appropriately
9 protect victims of these sins within a biblical process; and 10 (5) the possible need for repentance as a church; and 11

12 Be it further resolved that the committee shall be appointed by the moderator, and shall
13 include among its members or advisory members at least two subject-matter experts
14 and at least two women; and 15

16 Be it further resolved that the budget for the study committee be set at $15,000/year and
17 that funds be derived from gifts to the AC designated for that purpose, with General
18 Assembly appealing to the various Presbyteries to fund this initiative via such gifts.
19

20 Be it further resolved that the committee shall present their findings and recommendations
21 for adoption by the 48th General Assembly.
22

23 Adopted by Nashville Presbytery at its stated meeting, November 13, 2018

24 Attested by /s/ TE R. Neil Spence, stated clerk
