

1 OVERTURE 43 from Metro Atlanta Presbytery (to AC, OC)
2 “Formation of a Study Committee on Domestic Abuse and Sexual Assault”
3 (Version 8)
4

5 Whereas, the sins of domestic abuse, including physical, emotional, and verbal abuse, and 6 sexual assault are expressly forbidden in scripture (Deuteronomy 22:25-27; Eph. 5:25-7 29; 2 Timothy 3:2-5; 1 Peter 3:7; Jude 7; Exodus 21:15; also WLC 135 and 139); and 8

9 Whereas, these sins are especially heinous because they are “against the express letter of the 10 law,” “break many commandments,” “admit of no reparation,” and often involve various 11 other aggravations (WLC 151); and 12

13 Whereas, these sins are grievously prevalent in our society as well as the Church; and 14

15 Whereas, these sins cause a complex set of physical, emotional, spiritual, and psychological 16 responses—including immense shame, fear and anxiety, depression, trauma, isolation, 17 anger, and denial—that persist with varying levels of severity throughout life; and 18 since these heinous sins do lasting damage to every aspect of a victims life (e.g., 2 19 Samuel 13:1-22); and 20

21 Whereas, it is the responsibility of the elders of the church to exercise their authority, sever-22 ally and jointly, to shepherd those who are under their care by guarding against such 23 sinful behavior as much as possible, by wisely caring for the vulnerable and those 24 victimized by the sins of others, and by appropriately disciplining those guilty of such 25 sins toward a full repentance in each case in accordance with applicable law (Ezekiel 26 34:1-24; James 1:27; BCO 8-3; 27-4); and 27

28 Whereas, these sins have been a concerning subject of attention not only in other denomina-29 tions (cf. the Roman Catholic Church and the Southern Baptist Convention) but even 30 in the proceedings of the 46th General Assembly of the PCA; and 31

32 Whereas, the 42nd General Assembly previously exhorted the PCA and its courts to respond 33 boldly against one form of these sins, namely the sexual abuse of children; and 34

35 Whereas, the PCA report on “Divorce and Remarriage” was limited in its focus and does not 36 adequately define the scope and nature of domestic abuse and sexual assault nor ade-37 quately address many pastoral concerns regarding the care of those victimized by such 38 sins; and
39

40 Whereas, no standardized resources for pastoral care on these sins and their complex conse-
41 quences exist for officers, church courts, and agencies in the PCA; and 42

43 Whereas, no clear guidelines for policy or practice with regard to these sins exist for the 44 officers, church courts, and agencies in the PCA that would protect individuals and 45 congregations; and

1 Whereas, the Rules of Discipline protect against unjust accusation (BCO 31-8), they also 2 make no consideration for the unique heinousness of these sins and their practical ef-
3 fect on victims;
4

5 Therefore, be it resolved that Metro Atlanta Presbytery hereby overtures the 47th General As-6 ssembly of the PCA to form a committee to study:
7

- 8 (1) the best practices and policy guidelines for elders, church courts, and agencies for 9 justly and lawfully protecting against these sins, for providing safety for potential 10 victims who come forward, and for responding to those guilty of these sins; and
- 11 (2) the possibility of changes to the Rules of Discipline that would appropriately pro-12 tect victims of these sins within a biblical process; and
- 13 (3) the pastoral resources available for the care of survivors of these sins as well as 14 ministry and counsel for those guilty of such sins;
- 15 (4) the possible need for repentance as a church; and
- 16 (5) to include in their report a definition of the scope and nature of domestic abuse and 17 sexual assault; and

19 Be it further resolved that the committee shall be appointed by the moderator, and shall 20 include among its members or advisory members at least two subject-matter experts 21 and at least two women; and 22

23 Be it further resolved that the budget for the study committee be set at $15,000/year and that 24 funds be derived from gifts to the AC designated for that purpose, with Metro Atlanta
25 Presbytery committed to offer $1,000; and 26

27 Be it further resolved that the committee shall present their findings and recommendations
28 for consideration by the 48th General Assembly.
