Job Description (information limited to box size)

Grace Presbyterian Church seeks an ordained pastor with ministry experience, who is deeply committed to the doctrinal standards of reformed theology and the PCA. He accepts the Bible as the Word of God and the infallible truth and the whole counsel of God. As pastor he will practice expository preaching and teaching of the Word of God in proper context and provide leadership in the true worship of God.

Our pastor must be devoted to other areas of significance including, but not limited to, the following:

- Spiritual development of members;
- Visiting the members at home and the sick in various care facilities;
- Evangelism and discipleship training;
- Missions;
- Development and support of educational and training programs; and
- Teaching and interpreting Scripture.
