INTERN DESCRIPTION OVERVIEW

We desire that the intern will experience all facets of pastoral ministry in the local church. We often say that our interns will be able to touch the many aspects of ministry in some way, shape or form. However, we emphasize that our intern’s main responsibility is to be a student.

OPPORTUNITIES AS PASTORAL INTERN

I. Preaching and teaching:
   a. We greatly desire that our interns receive ample opportunities to preach. You can expect to fill the pulpit 4-6 times a year. Additionally, our Presbytery has pulpit opportunities that are needed throughout the year.
   b. Teaching opportunities during Sunday school, men’s bible studies, youth group, etc.

II. Other responsibilities:
   a. Attend staff meetings (unless in class) to collaborate with staff on the workings of the church.
   b. Work alongside children’s ministry and other ministries that desire help and attention.
   c. Visit shut-ins and pastoral visits to hospitals.
   d. Co-direct VBS.
   e. Attend Deacon and Session meetings (not required to attend all) to see and experience how the leadership functions.
   f. Love the flock at Redeeming Grace PCA.

III. Be a student:
   a. Intern is to be enrolled full-time at RTS-Charlotte.
   b. Intern is to be pursuing Master of Divinity degree.

COMPENSATION

I. $20,000 per year.
II. Tuition and books.
III. 4 weeks paid vacation.

MISC.

I. Must be willing to live in the Lake Wylie/Clover, SC area.
II. Plan to go under care of Fellowship Presbytery.
III. The Session, Diaconate, and Pastors want to mentor, disciple, encourage, and prepare you for pastoral ministry. You will receive a mentor from the Session and will have much time with the pastors to walk alongside you during this formative time. Our philosophy is to develop future pastors that we hope to send out into the local church and serve her well for God’s glory.

APPLICATION & TIME TABLE FOR HIRE:

II. Interns are expected to serve RGPCA for at least three years as they pursue their MDiv.
