

HARVEST USA - President

Harvest USA, with home office in the Philadelphia, PA, area, is seeking applicants for the full-time position of President.

"Harvest USA is a national ministry dedicated to discipleship and equipping regarding issues of sexuality and gender. The President oversees both the engagement of our mission and the development of the ministry, and serves as a spokesperson for our organization.

For further information regarding qualifications and duties of the position, please contact Joan McConnell, Board member and chairperson of the President Search Committee at joanmcconnell1001@gmail.com