

Young Meadows Presbyterian Church
Position Description
Family Outreach Minister

The Family Outreach Minister is responsible for outreach to unbelieving and unchurched children and families. Given Young Meadows' desire to reach the next generation with the gospel, candidates should embrace and embody the mission of Young Meadows. The F.O.M will serve at the behest of the Session and will report directly to the Senior Pastor. Preferable candidates would have at least 1 year of experience in evangelism and outreach, but not required. Responsibilities include:

- Initiating contact, communication and engagement with unbelieving and unchurched children, as well as young adults/families.
- Developing and implementing outreach and ministry plan, including the fostering of community and direct discipleship of young adults/married couples. The FOM will work especially in conjunction with Young Meadows partnerships, developing outreach to unbelieving children and families.
- Overseeing and serving as a liaison to Young Meadows' children's and youth's ministries, as well as members of the congregation.
- Preaching regularly (every four to six weeks).
- Assisting as called upon in worship leading of both services, as well as other churches as needed.
- Assisting church staff in counseling, especially as it relates to parents of children and youth, along with young adults/married couples.
- Regular attendance and involvement in Presbytery and General Assembly meetings and committee assignments.

If interested, please send your resume, ministerial data form, and cover letter to jjoye@ympca.org.