

NEW CITY FELLOWSHIP
SOUTH CITY

April 27, 2021

New City Fellowship-South in St. Louis, Mo., is seeking an Assistant Pastor to oversee music/worship leadership and one of two other church ministry areas—either community groups or youth ministry. In addition, the position will include general pastoral care duties, such as discipleship, visitation, and preaching several times per year.

Candidates must be ordained or ordainable in the Presbyterian Church in America.

To apply, please send a cover letter that states:

- Your philosophy of leading a worship/music ministry (200 words or less)
- Whether you would desire for additional responsibilities to cover Community Group oversight or Youth Group oversight. Additionally, if you feel you are flexible between these two areas and do not have a strong inclination for one or the other, please note that.
- Your philosophy of Community Groups (where they fit in the life of a church) and/or youth ministry (200 words or less).

- Why you desire to serve in pastoral leadership in a multi-cultural, multi-socioeconomic setting.

In your resume, please list relevant experience to the above ministry areas noted, including ministry service in a multi-cultural, multi-socioeconomic setting.

For more information or to apply, please contact Eileen O’Gorman, Director of Operations and Community Care, New City Fellowship-South. eogorman@ncfstl.org