

First Presbyterian Church is currently seeking qualified applicants for a full-time high school Bible teacher at their school, the Dillon Christian School. A minimum of a bachelor's degree in religion or related field is required for the position. A Masters in Divinity, teaching experience, and experience working with youth is desired.

The position would encompass teaching courses in the Old Testament and Apologetics. Dillon Christian School is on a six-period day and faculty members teach five courses per day. Additional duties would include planning mission opportunities, chapel programs, and coordinating small group devotions with the direction of the Spiritual Life Coordinator and Administration.

In addition, faculty and staff must be able to sign and defend Dillon Christian School's Statement of Faith.

1. We believe in personal salvation by faith in the blood of Jesus Christ which He shed on the Cross of Calvary for remissions of sins for all who believe.
2. We believe that the entire Bible is the inspired, inerrant Word of God.
3. We believe that the Lord Jesus Christ was raised bodily from the tomb and now sits at the Father's right hand in heaven making intercession for all born again people.
4. We believe that Christ will return bodily to call His church unto Himself.
5. We believe in the eternal security of the born again believer.
6. We believe that our God is the Triune God-one God, in three Persons. Additionally, salvation is the work of the Triune God. The Father sends the Son; the Son atones for sin; and the Spirit applies this atonement to us. The Spirit regenerates His people; thus, they trust in the Son alone; and the Son presents His people to the Father.

Interested parties should send their resume, letter of interest, and references to Rev. Matthew D. Adams at fpchurch@bellsouth.net.
