Background

Crossroads Community Church has served Upper Darby for more than 100 years. We have, like our community, changed during that time. We are now very diverse in membership and leadership, not only ethnically different from each other (members come from 20+ countries), but also diverse in our education, income, church background, theology, politics, wardrobe, etc.

We are expressive and warm. More than a few of us raise our hands in worship. We welcome everyone, we smile and hug. We are also Presbyterian and Reformed – we are elder-led and our theology emphasizes God’s grace and sovereignty.

For well over 20 years, we have had two worship services which functioned within their own respective templates without change beyond the particular song selections. The “contemporary” service featured piano, guitars, singers, and drums. The music was almost exclusively CCM composed in the last 20-30 years. The “traditional” service primarily featured piano and violin with occasional choirs and special music. The music was almost exclusively hymns (mostly from Trinity Hymnal with occasional use of other modern hymns (e.g. Getty, Townend, etc.).

Before the pandemic, we had planned to shift to one service. In part, because our attendance had declined to the point where we were stretched thin in supporting two services and the large sanctuary felt too empty. More than that, we wanted worship services that reflect more fully who we are now. We want to intentionally move beyond the two former categories (contemporary and traditional) into a third thing. We are calling that TRANSFORMED worship.

The Lord has used the pandemic to move us into one service. Is the Lord now calling you to help us make the rest of the transformation?
