

Job Description for Associate Pastor
Filbert Presbyterian Church In America
2066 Filbert Hwy
York, SC 29745

Qualifications:

- PCA Teaching Elder in good standing (If not already ordained, then pursuing ordination in the PCA)

Preliminary Remarks:

- Associate Pastor will work closely with the Senior Pastor and the Session in carrying out ministry.
- Senior and Associate Pastor are both called by the congregation, and therefore are both pastors to the whole congregation, though each has his own job description.
- Main “guideline” for Associate and Senior Pastor is to avoid duplicating efforts while engaging in ministry.
- It is our hope that the Associate Pastor will be able to engage in the full range of pastoral ministry in a small/mid-sized local church. This includes pastoral counseling, weddings, funerals, small group and one-one discipleship, etc...

Associate Pastor Job Description:

- Primarily responsible for Children, Youth, and Family Ministry (This includes equipping and assisting parents in discipleship of their children.)
- Share hospital visitation with Sr. Pastor
- Preaching at least once per month (including administration of the sacraments, when needed)
- Leading in worship when not preaching
- Full participation in the work of the Session
- Teaching- development and support of Christian education
- Expected and encouraged to be actively involved in Presbytery, General Assembly and local community ministries
