Fremont Presbyterian Church is located in desirable Sacramento, California, one block away from Sacramento State University and near both the mountains and the ocean. The Sierra Nevada Mountains are close by, with spectacular scenery, great hiking, and the stunning Lake Tahoe within a two-hour drive. The California coast and numerous beaches are also within a two-hour drive. The city provides a balance of bigger city life with a smaller city feel, and the cost of living is favorable compared to Los Angeles or the San Francisco Bay Area. Two large rivers converge in the city and Sacramento is known as the "City of Trees" due to the large number of tall mature trees in the city.
