Title: Pastor of Discipleship and Community Life
Position: Assistant Pastor

Position Summary
The Pastor of Discipleship and Community life will oversee multiple ministry areas with primary responsibility being the strategic development of discipleship and community life in the church. This position will help the church intentionally pursue its core values of disciple-making and community fostering within the larger vision of the church. As an ordained minister, the assistant pastor will also regularly perform the duties of pastoral ministry, especially the public and private ministries of the Word and prayer.

About Cornerstone
Cornerstone Presbyterian Church (CPC) meets in Lansdale, PA, a suburb about 25 miles north of Philadelphia. Our vision is simple: we exist to glorify God by making gospel-centered disciples who will bring the hope and renewal of Jesus Christ to greater Philadelphia and the world. We desire to do this by pursuing our five core values: gospel centrality, disciple-making, community fostering, mercy and justice, and global missions.

Job Description
As the Pastor of Discipleship and Community Life

• Oversee and provide support for the various discipleship ministries in the church (children, youth, adult)
• Organize and coordinate Cornerstone’s Discipleship Program (leading and teaching various classes/bible studies/seminars, scheduling and utilizing interns, building a robust discipleship culture)
• Develop and oversee the church’s community groups system (registration, curriculum, scheduling, recruiting/training/coaching leaders)

As the Assistant Pastor

• Create and supervise the church’s assimilation process (from welcome, follow up, membership, to plugging members into community groups/discipleship)
• Minister to and shepherd the congregation (with a particular focus on newcomers, college students, 20s/30s demographic)
• Participate in the Sunday worship services (preaching ~6-10 times a year, regular worship leading, occasional administration of sacraments)
• Assist senior pastor in providing organizational leadership and training to various staff, officers, lay-leaders, interns, and seminary students

• Engage in general pastoral responsibilities and congregational care to members (visitations, counseling, funerals, weddings, etc)
• Participate in the duties of a presbyter (attend monthly session meetings, biannual presbytery meetings and annual General Assembly)

Requirements
• Possesses a clear vision and specific conviction for pastoral ministry
• Master of Divinity Degree (or its equivalent)
• Ordained or ordainable in the Presbyterian Church in America (or willing to transfer credentials)

Desired Qualities
• Self-starter - a self-motivated spirit who works better with general guidelines and a clear goal rather than being micromanaged
• Team player - loves sharing and celebrating team wins/successes and also enjoys collaboration/sharing ideas
• Kingdom-minded - loves presbyterianism and Reformed theology but is most passionate about seeing the gospel-preached and the kingdom advancing for God’s glory

Compensation
• Full details of the package discussed in the interview process
