Harvest Presbyterian Church is a 31 year-old church. We spent 24 years in a high school auditorium. Seven years ago, we built a new church building on 10 acres of land on a major connecting road. Our congregation consists of many military members due to Marine Corps Base, Camp LeJeune being located here. Marines and sailors pass through here on three year assignments. Our local community also has one of the largest military retirement communities in the nation. Onslow County's average population makes it one of the youngest counties in the nation. Summer turnovers are difficult due to dear friends and families moving on to other duty stations. However, we feel that while we have them with us, they have sat under solid reformed preaching and teaching, then God sends them, literally, all over the world. There is no full time staff, however, we have one part-time administrative assistant and one part-time music director. Fellowship is emphasized with a solid small group ministry in place, a retired PCA Navy Chaplain as our men's discipleship director and a vibrant women's ministry. There are currently three Ruling Elders and five Deacons.
