

POSITION: PASTORAL INTERN

Status: Full-time, Exempt

ABOUT US

We exist to glorify and enjoy God by making disciples who make a difference through grace-filled worship, community, and mission. McLean Presbyterian is part of the Capital Pres Family, alongside Capital Presbyterian Fairfax and Capital Presbyterian Reston.

Our aim is to make disciples through three ministry areas: worship, community, and mission. While activity in each area does not equal discipleship, we are confident that these are the contexts needed for deep spiritual growth. In these contexts, we navigate the nuances of life in Christ together, and that's how we make disciples.

POSITION SUMMARY

This position exists to train and equip men with an aspiration to pastoral ministry, with a focus on those aiming for roles as church planters, solo pastors, and senior pastors. Interns will participate and be trained in the ministry philosophy of McLean Presbyterian Church (MPC). Through academic training at Reformed Theological Seminary DC (RTS Washington) and spiritual formation with the other interns, each intern will be equipped to serve Christ's church as pastor-preachers.

Throughout the program, interns report to an assigned pastor or ministry director. The intern program is a multi-year program rotating among three major ministry areas: worship, community, and missions. The goal is for the intern to complete the Master of Divinity at RTS Washington (M.A.B.S. plus languages is also an option and ordainable in our Presbytery [Potomac]), while serving in our church, in 3 years. The initial position is one year and renewable. Tuition and academic expenses are fully funded.

In the first year, this Pastoral Intern will primarily serve in one ministry area, for example in mission (community, or worship): assisting with strategic planning, logistics, hosting events, leading worship and assisting weekly sermon prep, working directly under the Director of Mission and Senior Pastor. Other regular experiences include attendance at conferences, church retreats, staff training, and denominational meetings as well as close mentorship and interaction with pastoral and ministry staff.

Subsequent years will be designed to address specific growth areas in the intern as well as meeting the needs of the church with the goal of rotating the intern through worship, community, and missions.
