Dear Brother in Christ:

This Church profile letter is being posted on behalf of the Redeemer Christian Fellowship Congregation. We are looking for a lead pastor for our congregation. We appreciate your willingness to participate in the Lord's work at RCF. We ask for your prayers during our time of searching for a pastor. Be assured that we are committed to faithfully and prayerfully seeking God's will and maintaining the highest level of confidentiality. God has been good to us, and we praise Him. Please read over this short Church profile letter and email us your resume. Your resume will be placed with the others we have received. After a period of prayer, a selection of about ten to twelve men will be made. Should we be led to consider you, you will be contacted at that time for further information. We are committed to an orderly process and will seriously consider only one man at a time. Thank you again for considering submitting to the Lord's will as our lead pastor. We pray that God will continue to use you in your current place of service to the fullest. In Christ,

Jesse Boggs

CONGREGATIONAL PRIORITIES:

Proclamation of the Word:

The Word of God is preached with urgency and conviction, bringing it to bear on the changing needs of individuals, the community, and the world. A high priority of the pastor's time is placed on sermon preparation.

SPIRITUAL DEVELOPMENT OF MEMBERS:

The pastor shares members' struggles regarding the Christian faith, with opportunities for individuals and groups to reflect on beliefs, concerns, and doubts regarding Christian understanding of the spiritual dimensions of life. This is vital to the pastor's weekly workload and should be shared with the church deacons.

CONGREGATIONAL VISITATION:

The pastor develops and carries out a systematic plan for the visitation of the entire congregation, with particular attention to prospective members and those with special needs. This is vital to the pastor's weekly workload and should be shared with the church deacons.

DISCIPLESHIP TRAINING:

The pastor is committed to training and raising men into positions of leadership and eldership. He is committed to passing on the reformed faith to those of the congregation through the breaking of bread, teaching theology, and living life together. This model also encourages these men to become disciplined of other men themselves.

TEACHING RESPONSIBILITY:

The pastor accepts an active teaching role, interpreting and teaching the Scriptures, theological concepts, history of the Church, and current events; provides instruction for Church Officers and educational leaders; and confirms new members.

INVOLVEMENT IN LOCAL COMMUNITY PROBLEMS AND ACTIVITIES:

Concern for identifying social problems in the community; work done with groups seeking solutions. Time and skills committed to community groups. Information and encouragement are provided to enable members to become informed and involved.

Humble Steward:

The pastor is committed to living a transparent and above-reproachful life. He is given materials and items to help him lead the church while stewarding these gifts with humility and transparency.

IF INTERESTED IN APPLYING FOR THIS JOB:

Please email a copy of your resume to jboggsnm@gmail.com.
