

COVENANT
CHURCH of NAPLES | PCA

WOMEN'S MINISTRY DIRECTOR

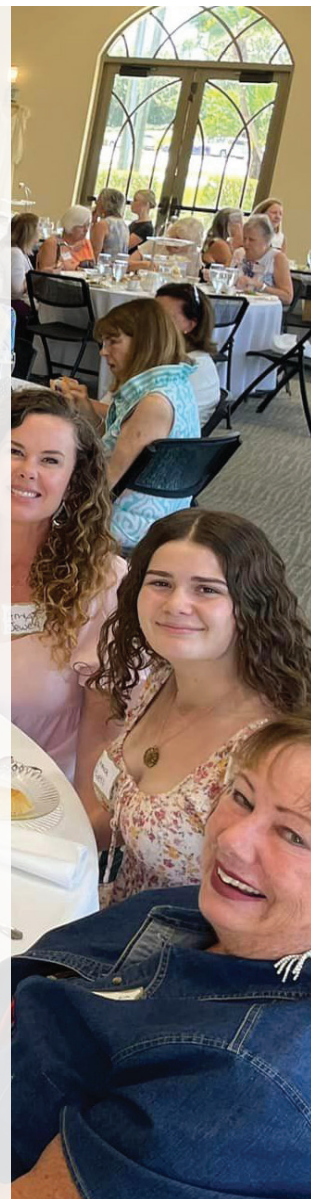

GENERAL PURPOSE

To contribute to the mission of Covenant Church to develop and deploy fully devoted followers of Jesus Christ to disciple our family, community and world by guiding the women to be richly involved in the life of the church and well cared for by the church. This will include equipping and developing Covenant women through Bible study, discipleship, fellowship and service.

MAJOR TASKS AND RESPONSIBILITIES

1. Develop ministry purpose, values, and goals that flow from the church's mission and use these to evaluate existing programs within Women's Ministry on an ongoing basis.
2. Recruit, train and mobilize leaders of all ages including Women's Leadership Team and Bible study facilitators and teachers. In consultation with other staff, oversee curriculum selection for Bible studies and other class studies.
3. Promote the integration of women into the ministries of the church with particular attention given to quickly connecting new women members into the life of Covenant.
4. Schedule and host women's retreats, outreach, fellowship, and conferences throughout the year.
5. Identify opportunities for women to serve together both within the church and outside in the community.
6. Promote mentoring relationships between the women of the congregation.
7. Be connected to the women's ministries at the denominational and presbytery level.
