

Full Time Family Ministries Coordinator

Last Updated 4/5/24

Vision Summary

The Family Ministry Coordinator is responsible for collaborating with staff, leadership, and volunteers to implement a gospel-centric discipleship vision for children, youth, and their parents at Grace Blue Ridge Church. This highly relational leadership position is responsible for overseeing children's ministry programming on Sunday mornings, as well as assisting with youth ministry programming on Sundays and Wednesday evenings. They will also help to plan and oversee special events designed for children, youth, and their families. Primary ministry duties include organization, communication, teaching, volunteer recruitment, and event planning. The Family Ministry Coordinator will help integrate our children, youth, and their families into Grace Blue Ridge Church, and help them to embody the church mission and values. He or she will work closely with the Director of Youth & Families to ensure a consistent vision and experience for families across all ages of childhood and adolescence.

Church Overview

Grace Blue Ridge is part of the Presbyterian Church of America (PCA) and is a reformed, contemporary congregation that started as a church plant 14 years ago. It has a diverse blend of ages, life stages, and backgrounds, with about fifty percent made up of families with children under 18.

The congregation has approximately 300 adult members and regular attenders and an additional 145 youth and children who are members or regular attenders. We average 230 people in weekly Sunday attendance, with an average of 60 children in our Sunday morning KidMin program weekly, as well as 50 students in our midweek Ridge Youth ministry programs. The church has 5 active session members, 5 full time staff, 4 part time staff, 4 adult volunteers in youth ministry, and approximately 50 volunteers in children's ministry.

Our Commitment to You:

Emotional health is a core value at GBR, and one way we embody this as a staff is by seeking to nurture the emotional, spiritual, and relational well being of the person, as well as his or her professional success. We care about the person in the role, not just the role itself.

We covenant to value your emotional health and seek the good of your whole person; spiritually, emotionally, physically, relationally, as well as your professional development and performance in this role.

We covenant to pray for you and your family, and provide opportunity for you to engage in community and discipleship at GBR through small groups, Bible study, and adult education.

We covenant to connect you with spiritual direction from an elder, spiritual director, or discipler for ongoing personal mentorship and prayer support, 1-2x month.

We covenant to provide consistent, honest, and clear communication to you about your role, your performance, and expectations.

We covenant to engage and process through conflict using the biblical direction from Matthew 18, utilizing honest conversation, curiosity, and humility, as we seek reconciliation and resolution.

We covenant to provide access to the elder liaison for HR Personnel issues if needed.

We covenant to provide check ins with a supervisor 2-3x a month for regular communication and collaboration.

We covenant to provide support to your ministry by supervisor, elder, or pastor participation in ministry activities at least 1x month.

We covenant to provide a 360 review once a year with feedback from your supervisors, coworkers, and trusted individuals of your choosing.
