About Farmville

Farmville, Virginia straddles Prince Edward and Cumberland counties and reaches people from Buckingham, Amelia, and Nottoway counties. Farmville is home to both Longwood University and Hampden-Sydney College and is described as a distinctive place where college town vibe meets small town charm.

The area is generally culturally Christian/conservative but lacking the heart and life-changing Gospel message. The university has more typical progressive views which cause some tension in the surrounding area and a pastor should expect to grapple with how to bring the Gospel to both groups simultaneously.
