

Director of Music Ministry

Christ United Fellowship Orlando (PCA) is looking for a part-time male music ministry leader (i.e., worship leader) passionate about worshiping God and helping others do the same. This part-time position (15-20 hrs/wk; including Sunday morning) includes a negotiable salary based on experience and training.

About Our Church

Christ United Fellowship Orlando is a PCA church whose first public worship began in 2015 in Orlando's South of Downtown (SODO). We are a gospel-centered, diverse church. We are a place where anyone is welcome to experience and share in the love of Christ. We desire that everyone know Christ and become more like Him! We sing a mix of gospel, modern, and classical hymns, contemporary songs with rich theological content, and traditional hymns. Our congregation loves to sing songs by Fred Hammond, Walter Hawkins, Chris Tomlin, Sovereign Grace Music, Kevin Twit, Matt Redman, Keith & Kristyn Getty, etc. You can learn more about us at www.christunitedfellowship.org. Must align with our Statement of Faith and Staff Lifestyle Agreement.

Reports to: Senior Pastor

Direct Reports: Musicians, Praise Team

Classification: Administrative/ministerial exception*

Part-Time/Hourly (15-20 hrs/wk including Sunday Morning)

Song Selection and Planning—40%

- Create a music environment that draws the congregation into a spirit of worship.
- Talk with the Senior Pastor to develop a vision and worship style for the music team.
- Develops song lists based on sermon topics, church worship style, and diverse cultures of the congregation, utilizing creativity to combine classical, traditional, contemporary, gospel, and emerging Christian music
- Work with the Pastor, leadership, and music team to plan weekly worship services.
- Choose songs and musical arrangements that are in accordance with CUF's musical philosophy.
- Organize and manage a repertoire of songs through the Planning Center App and the assembly of music books.
- Teach and introduce new songs in coordination with the Pastor and church leadership.
- Schedule staff and volunteers for services, including special services
- Coordinate lyrics and screen presentations with the Director of Media and production teams
- Coordinate youth participation with the Director of Children's Ministries
- Oversee equipment inventory, restock, and handling
- Arrange for temporary replacement during sickness, holidays, or other leave of absence.
- Perform other duties as needed or assigned.

Song Leading—20%

- Lead the congregation vocally in worship on Sunday mornings or special services as requested.
- Provides sheet music and tablature for musicians
- Directs and conducts musicians and singers during worship services
- Facilitate involvement of additional song leaders and ensemble vocalists
- Exhibit ability in instrumentation and chord chart utilization
- Assist with liturgical transitions as assigned by church leadership
- Hosts concerts or musical training. Coordinates the church's efforts to periodically host artists' concert performances that represent a variety of musical styles.

Leading Rehearsals—20%

- Facilitate rehearsals with staff and volunteers
- Lead sound checks with the entire music team before service

Team Training —10%

- Devote yourself to developing singers and musicians musically and emphasizing spiritual formation.
- Empower and encourage instrumentalists, vocalists, and production team members.
- Take initiative in recruiting and training members of the music team
- Meet with team members yearly, whether individually or collectively, to review, evaluate, assess, and plan next steps
- Care for staff and volunteers who are serving with bands and production teams.

Meetings - 10%

- Reports to and is supervised by the Director of Operations and Pastor.
- Meet with the Senior Pastor, Musicians, and Volunteers from the congregation.

Interested in Applying?

Please visit <https://christunitedfellowship.org/music-director/>