Assistant Pastor and Administrator Needed for International Church Plant

Lisbon, Portugal, Longer, Europe - Western

OPPORTUNITY DETAILS

We seek to reach the large number of expatriates living in the greater Lisbon area, including as many as 300,000 "global nomads." These expats include remote workers, diplomats, military personnel, retirees, and refugees, with a wide range of nationalities including Brazilians, Brits, Ukrainians, Mozambicans, Angolans, French, Germans, Chinese, people from Scandinavian countries, and a growing American population. Our desire is to develop a new team focused on planting an international Reformed church.

We need someone with a seminary degree and ordained to work alongside the lead pastor. You would preach and teach regularly, provide worship leadership including the writing and leading of liturgy on Sunday mornings, invest in the growing children's and youth ministry, and be involved in pastoral counseling and relationship building within the congregation. Another significant aspect of your responsibilities would be administrative in nature.
