

Worship Director Job Description New Covenant Fellowship (PCA)

Mission

New Covenant Fellowship (PCA) exists to gather a community of Christ followers who reflect the redemptive love of Jesus Christ in Mechanicsburg and beyond by declaring God's glory, discipling God's people and deploying them into God's Kingdom.

Job Summary

New Covenant Fellowship's (PCA) Worship Director will oversee, lead, and execute its worship and integration ministries in order to equip God's people to use God's gifts for God's glory to reflect the redemptive love of Christ in Mechanicsburg and beyond.

Spiritual + Professional Requirements

- Displays an abiding relationship with and humble reliance upon Jesus that is congruent in both private and public spheres of life.
- Embraces NCF'S theological framework in a winsome manner and endeavors to integrate it throughout ministry.
- Exhibits a healthy work-life balance and ability to maintain gospel renewal and vibrancy in everyday life.
- Demonstrates a sensitive and caring heart for God's people.
- Actively participates in the church's life and ministry and is committed to promoting its peace, purity and unity.
- Strong vocal and instrumental talents; guitar and/or piano proficiency required.

- Strong musical leadership abilities with proven experience in organizing and directing worship in a local church setting.
- Bachelor's degree preferred.

Ministry Responsibilities

- Collaborate with pastor to craft Christ-centered, Scripturally-shaped, historically-rooted worship services.
- Lead and oversee music team to support the liturgy, in such a way that NCF's congregation is formed spiritually and also is winsome for guests; whether Christian, spiritually curious, agnostic, non-believing, or otherwise.
- Recruit and schedule music team volunteers, prepare liturgy, music, and music team for weekly worship gatherings as well as special services within the church year and NCF's life and ministry.
- Provide contents for the bulletin and oversee a visual presentation in conjunction with the Sunday worship service in a prompt fashion.
- Oversee and assure maintenance and care of all equipment for this area of ministry as well as evaluate and suggest equipment needs for this area of ministry.
- Serves as point of contact from first visit to church membership in effort to integrate visitors and fringe attendees into NCF's life and ministry.
- Cultivates fellowship opportunities and environments to foster community with NCF's worshipping community.
- Oversee and lead in recruiting and resourcing leaders for NCF's Connect Groups.
- Organize and oversee the membership process.
- Cultivate opportunities and environments to integrate visitors and fringe attendees into NCF's life and ministry.
- Perform other duties requested by leadership

Ministry Competencies

- Ability to communicate effectively, both verbal and written.
- Displays initiative and exercises discernment as a self-starter and collaborative team member.

- Exercises creative, organizational, and administrative abilities.
 - Ability to work flexible hours.
 - Ability to maintain confidentiality in appropriate settings.
-

Contact email: cbowen@newcovfel.org

Status: Full-time