

Position: Youth Director

Reports to: Senior Pastor

Desired start date: ASAP

Job Description

The Youth Director (YD) is responsible for restarting and leading our youth ministry with special focus on high schoolers. The YD will need to be a spiritually mature person, able to administratively organize, comfortable with leading and teaching groups of students, but is also a winsome and likable, easy for students to connect with.

The Key Objectives of the Youth Director

- Build social cohesion amongst the high school students in our church
- Develop and oversee programs like:
 - Weekly youth group
 - Bible studies
 - Retreats/Camp trips (summer and winter)
 - Work together with the Middle School Youth Director to create a unified ministry for students from 6th grade through 12th grade

Other Responsibilities

- Cultivate deep relationships with student outside of weekly events
- Pursue personal opportunities for pastoral care of students
- Cast vision and create culture around relational investment in students' lives by adult volunteers
- Recruit, support, and encourage teams of staff, volunteers, and parents to create a long-term, sustainable ministry
- Find creative ways for youth to feel seen and known well by our CCE church family
- Find ways for students to serve locally and lead with them in service
- Assist in the middle school ministry's main events

Qualities and Skill Requirements

- Spiritually mature; understands and applies the Gospel to their own lives, is committed to the local church and prepared to become a member
- Emotionally mature; receives and provides critical feedback well and manages tasks and stress effectively
- Has an entrepreneurial spirit; likes starting things new and has a natural tendency to take initiative
- Passionate about mentoring and sharing the gospel with young people
- Proven leader with volunteer groups
- Strong relational and communication skills, both written and in-person

Hours

This job is possibly part time or full time, depending on the candidate

- 25 - 40 hours per week
- In office at least one full day per week
- Attends weekly staff meetings
- Sunday morning worship
- Quarterly staff off-sites

To learn more, reach out to our elder, David Entekin:

david@citychurcheastside.org