

CHRIST CENTRAL

Presbyterian Church

Assistant Pastor of Outreach

Christ Central Presbyterian Church, a 100+ year-old church in the heart of Tampa, is looking to call an Assistant Pastor to help revive the church's focus on outreach and evangelism. The ideal candidate will:

- Be gifted to preach, teach, and evangelize
- Have a proven track record of effective evangelistic outreach

The duties of this position include, but are not limited to:

- Motivating/encouraging a culture of outreach among the congregation
- Promoting the church's presence in the community
- Administering outreach activities/projects and/or supervising others in this role
- Following up with visitors and/or coordinating visitor follow-up with the elders and other volunteers
- Helping assimilate newcomers and connecting them into groups/ministry with special emphasis on young families
- Establishing discipleship relationships with select members as appropriate
- Preaching approximately once per month
- Assisting the Senior Pastor in leading worship on a weekly basis
- Teaching Sunday school or other Bible studies as requested
- Training church officers and candidates for office, if requested
- Coordinating with the Director for Spanish Ministries as appropriate
- Attending all Session meetings
- Attending key church fellowship events throughout the year

If the chosen candidate has the necessary experience, this position could be for an Associate Pastor instead of an Assistant Pastor. Interested applicants should send a resume and a Ministerial Data Form to Pastor John Keen at jkeen@christcentralpca.org
