Our Worship

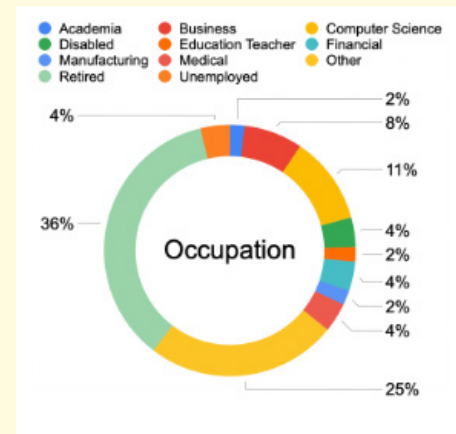

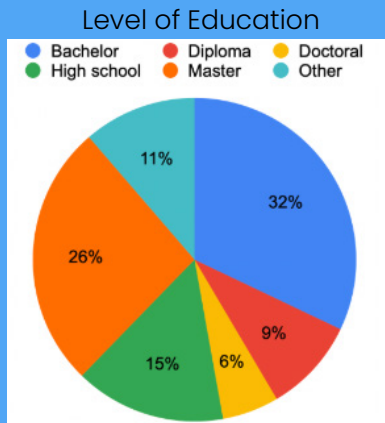

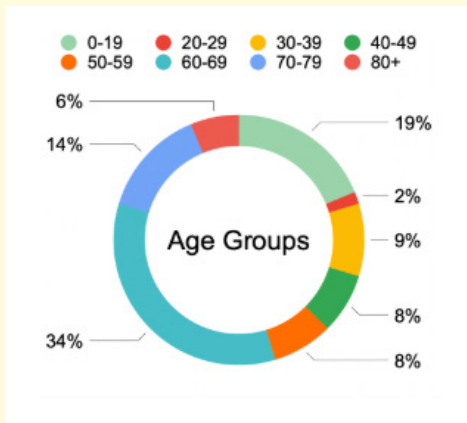

Our worship is centered on the faithful preaching of God's Word. A confessional Presbyterian and Reformed congregation, we believe that the Word of God is authoritative in every aspect of our lives. Our task as Christians is to understand, believe and apply biblical truths daily.

Because of our strong belief that God speaks to us in the Bible, our preaching is unapologetically expository. Our pastors seek to clearly explain God's Word and its application, so that together we might be transformed into the likeness of Jesus.

Dr. Jeff Landis has led our church in expository preaching and biblical worship for over 38 years. His example of biblical teaching and application has been formative for our spiritual growth as a congregation.

At Covenant worship services include traditional hymns and contemporary worship songs. Musicians who play the piano, guitar, and sing support the congregation's singing and the minister's leading in worship.

We prioritize Christian education. Pastors and other church officers lead our Sunday school. Committed teachers support our children's ministry preschool to high school.

4 Our Church Life

We also offer vibrant ministries for both men and women. After worship, our community frequently gathers for lunch and fellowship. We regularly meet in growth groups for sermon discussion, prayer, and fellowship.

The women's ministry includes regular Bible study and prayer gatherings along with seasonal events. The men's ministry features weekly Bible studies and a monthly men's breakfast.

5 Our Leadership

Our leadership comprises of faithful and experienced individuals committed to shepherding the congregation. In addition to our pastor, the Session includes an ordained teacher and three seasoned ruling elders.

Four deacons serve the church and the broader community, ensuring practical needs are met with compassion and care. A dedicated administrative assistant supports the church's ministry, particularly the pastor's work.

The Covenant Women's Ministry leadership is well-organized and collaborates closely with the Session to support and enrich the church's life. Our trustees oversee the financial and operational aspects of the church.

We are financially stable, with substantial reserves, and committed to providing a salary and benefits package that supports a pastor living and serving in our local community.

We are blessed to own our facility, which is strategically located in San Jose, including a sanctuary seating 230+ people, a spacious fellowship hall, multiple classrooms, and ample parking.
