Lebanon Presbyterian Church

CHURCH PROFILE

- Originally founded in 1747.
- A part of the Evangelical Presbyterian Church (EPC) since 1985.
- Member of New River Presbytery.

CHURCH LOCATION

- Only 4 ½ miles to the entrance of the Shenandoah National Park, the Blue Ridge Parkway, and the Appalachian Trail. Outdoor and recreational opportunities abound!
- 35,000 people live within a 8-mile radius of the church (includes the communities of Crozet, Afton, and Waynesboro).
- Address: 8312 Brooksville Road, Greenwood, VA 22943
- Albemarle County

CONTACT

SEARCH COMMITTEE CHAIRMAN:
ELIZABETH BOWMAN

PHONE: 434-825-9995

EMAIL: EUBOWMAN@OUTLOOK.COM

WEBSITE: WWW.LEBANONEPC.ORG

CHURCH PHONE: 540-456-6719

CHURCH MISSION

We glorify God by making disciples of Jesus, who make disciples.

CHURCH VISION

To be an equipping outpost that sends disciples into the community for Kingdom impact.

POSITION AVAILABLE: SENIOR PASTOR

Who We Are:

We are a faithful congregation committed to Scripture, sound doctrine, and discipleship. Our members are actively involved and value prayer, worship, and mutual care.

We gather weekly for Worship and Sunday School, with Growth Groups meeting during the week. Quarterly fellowship meals provide opportunities for connection and community. Many members share their musical gifts, and we have an active heart for local and global missions.

Lebanon Church has a committed core of members who faithfully support the life of the church. While we honor our long history, we are forward-looking and excited to follow God's leading into new opportunities for ministry and outreach. We look forward to embracing the man God is calling to be our pastor.

Who We Seek:

A pastor who ...

Is passionate about evangelism, reaching the unchurched

Boldly teaches and preaches the full counsel of God's Word with clarity, relevance, and compassion

Is approachable, relational, and enjoys cultivating meaningful connections in the congregation and community

Provides wise oversight of operations while empowering staff, elders, and volunteers

Communicates clearly, fostering transparency, unity, and spiritual growth

Leads with a servant-hearted approach, inspiring discipleship, ministry, and vibrant church life

Possesses a church-planter mindset, creatively reaching new people and engaging the community

Leads with humility, integrity, and a heart for God's mission

Professional Qualifications:

Ordained or ordainable in a Reformed or Presbyterian denomination.