Reports to:	MTS Associate Director of State Capitols
Department:	Ministry to State (MTS)
Location:	Remote – Salem, Oregon

About Ministry to State (MTS)

Ministry to State (MTS) is a ministry of Mission to North America (MNA) that serves those working in government at the state, national, and international levels. MTS seeks to:

- Expose those in government to the transforming truths of the gospel
- Encourage and support a biblical worldview among those who profess faith in Christ
- Help establish and maintain a biblical conscience within the government community
- Provide a healthy, non-partisan connection between the church and those serving in government
- Promote informed, intentional prayer by the body of Christ for those in public service

MTS currently operates in nine state capitals and Washington, D.C.

Position Summary

Reports to the Associate Director of State Capitols and serves alongside Evergreen Church (PCA) in Salem, Oregon. Leads ministry to Oregon state government officials and staff through evangelism, discipleship, prayer, and relationship-building, while engaging local churches in prayer and support.

Core Responsibilities

- Build discipling relationships with elected officials, staff, and appointees
- Lead Bible studies and provide spiritual encouragement
- Promote integration of faith and work in government service
- Speak at churches and write for MTS publications and websites
- Serve occasionally in teaching/preaching at Evergreen Church (PCA) in Salem, Oregon
- Raise and maintain financial support and communicate with donors
- Report to Pacific Northwest Presbytery and collaborate with MTS staff

Qualifications

- Mature Christian faith; views role as ministry and vocation
- Ordained (or ordination-ready) in the PCA
- Bachelor's degree or higher; theological training preferred
- Strong relational, communication, and independent work skills
- Ability to raise and sustain support

Support Requirement

This position is support-raised, as MTS views government as a mission field (WCF 23).
